

New Temple Kol Ami Emanuel Campus expansion 2025-2050

▶ Shared-Classrooms

Ten new modern classrooms to serve both our Charter and Religious Schools, fostering collaborative learning environments for Gesher (weekdays) and Hebrew School (Sundays).

▶ Beit Midrash/Chapel Revival

Introducing a brand-new, intimate synagogue and study hall, designed to accommodate up to 80 individuals, cultivating a sacred space for prayer and reflection.

▶ Elegant Entrance Hall

Unveiling a state-of-the-art reception hall, creating a sophisticated gateway for our events and gatherings, welcoming guests with grace and style.

▶ Grand Ballroom Addition

Introducing a spacious, acoustically enhanced ballroom, offering seating for up to 280 attendees, transforming celebrations into unforgettable experiences.

▶ Inspiring Conference Room

Presenting a versatile meeting venue for up to 35 participants, complemented by a library ambiance, promoting meaningful discussions and intellectual growth.

▶ Sanctuary Renewal

Revitalizing our main Sanctuary with upgraded features, including carpets, Bimah, podiums, pews, Ark, advanced technology, and screens, creating an enriched worship experience.

▶ Modernized Offices and Hall Area

Five contemporary offices designed to accommodate our dedicated staff, alongside a welcoming waiting area for our cherished members.

▶ Audio/Video Mastery

A dedicated room equipped to oversee seamless streaming operations, ensuring our services and events reach a broader audience.

▶ Dynamic Hebrew School Classrooms

Crafting two multi-purpose rooms, versatile enough to house diverse educational programs for up to 60 students or adults, promoting engaging learning experiences.

▶ Legacy Hall

Alongside our entrance, an exquisite hallway will celebrate the cherished history of TKAE, honoring the foundation on which we stand.

▶ Western Wall and Plaques Wall

Erecting a meaningful "replica" of the revered Kotel (Western Wall) within our sanctuary, providing a place for personal prayers, while also renovating a section to honor Yahrzeit Plaques, preserving the memory of our loved ones.

With these transformative enhancements, our campus will evolve into a haven that embodies our values, honors our heritage, and embraces the future with open arms. Together, we'll shape a space that resonates with the aspirations of our community and paves the way for generations to come.
